

LightGabler founders named ‘Super Lawyers’

Jonathan Fraser Light and Karen L. Gabler, employment law attorneys and founding partners of LightGabler LLP, have both been named Southern California Super Lawyers. This is the third year in a row the partners have both been named.

The rating service identifies outstanding lawyers from more than 70 practice areas who have attained a high degree of peer recognition and professional achievement. The designation “Super Lawyer” is reserved for the top 5 percent of attorneys in California. Mr. Light and Ms. Gabler were both named for their significant expertise in employment law advice and counsel as well as litigation.

Formed in May 2011, Camarillo-based LightGabler LLP is a business law firm, focused on employment advice and counsel, employment and business litigation, intellectual property and unfair competition.

Mr. Light and Ms. Gabler, who were also named Super Lawyers in 2012 and 2013, now lead a team of 11 attorneys. They regularly present seminars and training and lecture programs on management and employee topics. Both have published articles on employment law issues and have been quoted as experts in employment law for various business and legal publications.

Mr. Light is a 1981 graduate of the UCLA School of Law and a 1986 graduate of the National Institute for Trial Advocacy. He holds the highest AV rating from Martindale-Hubbell.

Ms. Gabler is a 1992 graduate of the William S. Richardson School of Law, University of Hawaii. She has taught employment law as an adjunct professor at the Pepperdine University School of Law.
